500,500 per year and better working conditions are involved.

Oscar S. Straus, former Secretary of Commerce and Labor, presided. The other members of the commission are Charles E. Van Hise, president of the University of Wisconsin; Frederick N. Judson, of St. Louis; Dr. Albert Shaw, editor of the Review of Reviews; Otto M. Elditz, a New York contractor; Daniel Williard, president of the Baltimore and Ohlo Baliroad, and P. H. Morrissey, former president of the Brotherhood of Rallway Trainmen.

Warren S. Stone, chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, occupied the whole afternoon presenting the case of the men. Mr. Stone said the men based their claim chiefly upon two grounds, the responsibility while on duty and the skill required.

in almost every State in the Union

What an interesting fact—the two biggest things of their kind in the world are, in this instance, more closely related than half-brothers. The biggest cereal food factory in the world, under one roof, is the pure food factory of the United Cereal Mills, Ltd., manufacturers of Washington Crisps, at Quincy, Ill., and the Washington Crisps package, as is now well known to the American people, is the biggest thing of its kind in the world, at its price. The big, handsome package of Washington Crisps, with its SUPREME quality of toasted corn flakes, has become so popular throughout America, that even the biggest cereal food factory in the world is not big enough to supply the ever-increasing demand for the delicious, strength-building, health-giving food, and another big food factory has been fully equipped at Buffalo,
